THE TUSCANY COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION PRIVACY POLICY

The only personal information the Tuscany Community Association has regarding members is the information provided by members when applying for membership and registering for programs or activities through the organization.

In registering for a program, you consent to the TCA's use of your personal information for purposes of membership and for purposes of the administration of the particular program that is being accessed. In particular, you consent to having your personal information used and published in member lists, contact lists, volunteer lists, team lists, coach lists, and such other documents as may reasonably be required in the operation of the TCA and the programs that it administers or is involved in. Your personal information will not be distributed to third parties except as required in connection with the operation of the TCA and the programs that it administers or is involved in. Please see the Information Release Waiver found during the registration process for further information.

Any questions regarding this policy can be directed to president@tuscanyc.ca.
